

Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs. section 18730 as follows:

18730. Provisions of Conflict of Interest Codes.

(a) Incorporation by reference of the terms of this regulation along with the designation of employees and the formulation of disclosure categories in the Appendix referred to below constitute the adoption and promulgation of a conflict of interest code within the meaning of Government Code section 87300 or the amendment of a conflict of interest code within the meaning of Government Code section 87306 if the terms of this regulation are substituted for terms of a conflict of interest code already in effect. A code so amended or adopted and promulgated requires the reporting of reportable items in a manner substantially equivalent to the requirements of article 2 of chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, Government Code sections 81000, et seq. The requirements of a conflict of interest code are in addition to other requirements of the Political Reform Act, such as the general prohibition against conflicts of interest contained in Government Code section 87100, and to other state or local laws pertaining to conflicts of interest.

(b) The terms of a conflict of interest code amended or adopted and promulgated pursuant to this regulation are as follows:

(1) Section 1. Definitions.

The definitions contained in the Political Reform Act of 1974, regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission (2 Cal. Code of Regs. sections 18100, et seq.), and any amendments to the Act or regulations, are incorporated by reference into this conflict of interest code.

(2) Section 2. Designated Employees.

1 The persons holding positions listed in the Appendix are designated employees. It has been
2 determined that these persons make or participate in the making of decisions which may foreseeably
3 have a material effect on financial interests.

4 (3) Section 3. Disclosure Categories.

5 This code does not establish any disclosure obligation for those designated employees who are
6 also specified in Government Code section 87200 if they are designated in this code in that same
7 capacity or if the geographical jurisdiction of this agency is the same as or is wholly included within the
8 jurisdiction in which those persons must report their financial interests pursuant to article 2 of chapter 7
9 of the Political Reform Act, Government Code sections 87200, et seq.

10 In addition, this code does not establish any disclosure obligation for any designated employees
11 who are designated in a conflict of interest code for another agency, if all of the following apply:

12 (A) The geographical jurisdiction of this agency is the same as or is wholly included within the 13 jurisdiction of the other agency;

14 (B) The disclosure assigned in the code of the other agency is the same as that required under 15 article 2 of chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, Government Code section 87200; and

16 (C) The filing officer is the same for both agencies.¹

17 Such persons are covered by this code for disqualification purposes only. With respect to all

¹ Designated employees who are required to file statements of economic interests under any other agency's conflict of interest code, or under article 2 for a different jurisdiction, may expand their statement of economic interests to cover reportable interests in both jurisdictions, and file copies of this expanded statement with both entities in lieu of filing separate and distinct statements, provided that each copy of such expanded statement filed in place of an original is signed and verified by the designated employee as if it were an original. See Government Code section 81004.

1 other designated employees, the disclosure categories set forth in the Appendix specify which kinds of
2 financial interests are reportable. Such a designated employee shall disclose in his or her statement of
3 economic interests those financial interests he or she has which are of the kind described in the 4 disclosure categories to which he or she is assigned in the Appendix. It has been determined that the 5 financial interests set forth in a designated employee's disclosure categories are the kinds of financial
6 interests which he or she foreseeably can affect materially through the conduct of his or her office.

7 (4) Section 4. Statements of Economic Interests: Place of Filing.

8 The code reviewing body shall instruct all designated employees within its code to file
9 statements of economic interests with the agency or with the code reviewing body, as provided by the 10 code reviewing body in the agency's conflict of interest code.²

13 of this code, as originally adopted, promulgated and approved by the code reviewing body, shall file
14 statements within 30 days after the effective date of this code. Thereafter, each person already in a
15 position when it is designated by an amendment to this code shall file an initial statement within 30 days

6 Any person who resigns within 12 months of initial appointment, or within 30 days of the date of
7 notice provided by the filing officer to file an assuming office statement, is not deemed to have assumed
8 office or left office, provided he or she did not make or participate in the making of, or use his or her
9 position to influence any decision and did not receive or become entitled to receive any form of payment
10 as a result of his or her appointment. Such persons shall not file either an assuming or leaving office
11 statement.

12 (A) Any person who resigns a position within 30 days of the date of a notice from the filing
13 officer shall do both of the following:

14 (1) File a written resignation with the appointing power; and

15 (2) File a written statement with the filing officer declaring under penalty of perjury that during 16 the period between appointment and resignation he or she did not make, participate in the making, or 17 use the position to influence any decision of the agency or receive, or become entitled to receive, any 18 form of payment by virtue of being appointed to the position.

12 holds office or over which the elected officer's agency has direction and control.

13 (B) No public official who is exempt from the state civil service system pursuant to subdivisions
14 (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of Section 4 of Article VII of the Constitution shall, while he or she holds office,
15 receive a personal loan from any officer, employee, member, or consultant of the state or local

15 made to a public official whose duties are solely secretarial, clerical, or manual.

16 (E) This section shall not apply to the following:

- 17 1. Loans made to the campaign committee of an elected officer or candidate for elective office.
- 18 2. Loans made by a public official's spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother,
19 sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the
20 spouse of any such persons, provided that the person making the loan is not acting as an agent or

3. Loans from a person which, in the aggregate, do not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) at any given time.

4. Loans made, or offered in writing, before January 1, 1998.

(A) Except as set forth in subdivision (B), no elected officer of a state or local government agency shall, from the date of his or her election to office through the date he or she vacates office, receive a personal loan of five hundred dollars ($500) or more, except when the loan is in writing and clearly states the terms of the loan, including the parties to the loan agreement, date of the loan, amount of the loan, term of the loan, date or dates when payments shall be due on the loan and the amount of the payments, and the rate of interest paid on the loan.

3. Loans made, or offered in writing, before January 1, 1998.

(C) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from any other provision of Title 9 of the Government Code.

1 (8.4) Section 8.4. Personal Loans.

2 (A) Except as set forth in subdivision (B), a personal loan received by any designated
3 employee shall become a gift to the designated employee for the purposes of this section in the following
4 circumstances:

5 1. If the loan has a defined date or dates for repayment, when the statute of limitations for filing
6 an action for default has expired.

7 2. If the loan has no defined date or dates for repayment, when one year has elapsed from the 8 later of the following:

9 a. The date the loan was made.

10 b. The date the last payment of one hundred dollars ($100) or more was made on the loan.

3 considerations.

4 5. A loan made to a debtor who has filed for bankruptcy and the loan is ultimately discharged
5 in bankruptcy.

6 (C) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from any other provisions of Title 9 of the 8 (9) Section 9. Disqualification.

9 No designated employee shall make, participate in making, or in any way attempt to use his or
10 her official position to influence the making of any governmental decision which he or she knows or has
11 reason to know will have a reasonably foreseeable material financial effect, distinguishable from its effect
12 on the public generally, on the official or a member of his or her immediate family or on:

13 (A) Any business entity in which the designated employee has a direct or indirect investment
14 worth two thousand dollars ($2,000) or more;

5 prior to the time when the decision is made.

6 (9.3) Section 9.3. Legally Required Participation.

7 No designated employee shall be prevented from making or participating in the making of any
8 decision to the extent his or her participation is legally required for the decision to be made. The fact
9 that the vote of a designated employee who is on a voting body is needed to break a tie does not make
10 his or her participation legally required for purposes of this section.

11 (9.5) Section 9.5. Disqualification of State Officers and Employees.

12 In addition to the general disqualification provisions of section 9, no state administrative official
13 shall make, participate in making, or use his or her official position to influence any governmental 14 decision directly relating to any contract where the state administrative official knows or has reason to 15 know that any party to the contract is a person with whom the state administrative official, or any 16 member of his or her immediate family has, within 12 months prior to the time when the official action is

4 When a designated employee determines that he or she should not make a governmental
5 decision because he or she has a disqualifying interest in it, the determination not to act may be
6 accompanied by disclosure of the disqualifying interest.

7 Section 11. Assistance of the Commission and Counsel.

8 Any designated employee who is unsure of his or her duties under this code may request
9 assistance from the Fair Political Practices Commission pursuant to Government Code section 83114 or 10 from the attorney for his or her agency, provided that nothing in this section requires the attorney for the 11 agency to issue any formal or informal opinion.

12 (11) Section 12. Violations.

13 This code has the force and effect of law. Designated employees violating any provision of this
14 code are subject to the administrative, criminal and civil sanctions provided in the Political Reform Act,
15 Government Code sections 81000 - 91015. In addition, a decision in relation to which a violation of 16 the disqualification provisions of this code or of Government Code section 87100 or 87450 has
